Corelation, Inc. Recognized as a San Diego Top Workplace 2020; CEO Theresa Benavidez Earns Top Leadership Award

SAN DIEGO - November 22, 2020: For the second consecutive year, Corelation, Inc. has been designated as a Top Workplace by The San Diego Union-Tribune. Out of 2,176 participating employers, just 70 companies earned distinction as a 2020 Top Workplace, with Corelation ranking in the Top Mid-Size Companies (150-499 employees) category.

The Top Workplaces are selected based exclusively on anonymous employee feedback through a survey administered by The San Diego Union-Tribune's third-party research partner Energage, LLC. The 2020 survey garnered a 91% completion rate from Corelation's employees, and responses measured a number of workplace culture aspects including alignment, engagement, leadership, and performance.

As a result of the survey, Corelation's President & CEO Theresa Benavidez was also honored as the winner of the Top Workplaces Leadership Award - taking the top honors for leadership in a mid-sized company in San Diego County.

"Theresa Benavidez's expertise and guidance has been instrumental to the success of this company," remarked Corelation Founder & Chairman John Landis. "At the heart of her contributions is the supportive, collaborative culture she has helped to grow organically since Corelation's beginnings. I am so proud of Theresa's accomplishments; her leadership is truly deserving of this recognition."

Corelation's dedication to building a strong, intentional workplace culture has helped drive the employee satisfaction reflected in the results of the survey.

"We are so fortunate to have a such an immensely talented team of individuals who share our vision for Corelation. The passion and integrity our employees exhibit each and every day contribute to making Corelation the best place to work,” commented Corelation President & CEO Theresa Benavidez. “I am deeply humbled to be honored with the Top Workplaces leadership award. A heartfelt thank you to the Corelation team for believing in our mission, and to the San Diego Union-Tribune for this incredible recognition.”
