Corelation Announces Seven New Credit Union Partnerships in Third Quarter 2024, Strengthening Industry Leadership

SAN DIEGO - October 4, 2024: Corelation, Inc. sustains its growth by securing partnerships with seven credit unions (cumulative total of $3.7 billion in assets; 295,968 members) in the third quarter of 2024.

The credit unions, with assets ranging from $136 million to $1.4 billion, include FreeStar Financial Credit Union, Leaders Credit Union, Oswego County Federal Credit Union, Red River Credit Union, Texoma Community Credit Union, Unity One Credit Union, and University of Nebraska Federal Credit Union. With the addition of these new credit union signings, Corelation has reached 240 signed clients, showcasing the company's strong commitment to the credit union industry.

"We believe KeyStone will enable TCCU to modernize operations, enhance member services, and improve overall efficiency. Its robust capabilities align with our growth goals and strengthen our market position," said John Buckley, President/CEO of Texoma Community Credit Union. "This decision is pivotal for TCCU's sustained success well into the future. Their innovative approach, future-driven initiatives, and dedication to service and client support confirmed that Corelation is the right partner to drive our growth forward."

Red River Credit Union also decided that Corelation was the ideal partner, appreciating its open API and cutting-edge technology.

"During our core system due diligence, it quickly became clear that aligning RRCU with Corelation was the right choice. Corelation's collaborative approach and 'more in the core' philosophy, along with KeyStone's open API, allow us to select the best technologies for our members," shared Chint Murdock, Chief Strategy Officer of Red River Credit Union. "We're excited to make the switch to KeyStone and look forward to a strong partnership ahead."

In announcing their decision to move forward with Corelation, Red River Credit Union emphasized the significance of selecting a core system that aligns with their long-term goals and member-focused mission.

"Red River Credit Union is proud and excited to select the Corelation KeyStone core system because it offers a next-generation, person-centric core processing solution that meets both our immediate and future needs," expressed Brad Bailey, President/CEO of Red River Credit Union. "As we continue to grow and offer more innovative products and services for our members, partnering with Corelation was exactly what we were looking for in a core processor."

All 7 credit unions are scheduled to convert to KeyStone in 2025 and 2026.

"We are thrilled to welcome all our new credit union partners this quarter. Your trust in our solutions and services is greatly appreciated as we continue to grow and innovate," shared Corelation President Rob Landis. "Together, we look forward to achieving wonderful success and driving the future of the credit union industry forward."
